. Thank you all for participating in this regatta. We work hard to put on a great sport event for you because we know you train hard to race hard and deserve the best equipment and fair water. The ByPass Canal venue is a hidden gem with straight, clean, deep, protected water. We hope to grow this event in 2019 and beyond for clubs and possibly host some East Tampa corporate/community teams a regional championship event in the future. The PASS Leader Board has been update with points allocated from this regatta. Please check for accuracy so your crew is represented by points they have earned.

. Our next regatta is Rocky Point Sprints on April 21st which has a PASS xFactor of 4! This regatta is a welcome event for our Pan Am Spring Training Camp attendees. Entry is FREE for teams registered for the Tampa International Dragon Boat Races the following weekend so register for that ASAP and claim your FREE entry to Rocky Point Sprints (and 2K).

. The first ever IDBJF Championships is mired in controversy as the apparent loser of the final (and only) joust, Rodney Halbleib has filed a protest with the International Court of Arbitration for Sport in Switzerland (kidding). Mr. Halbleib is claiming that the declared champion, Mike Kerkmann, came in high with his jousting pole with the intent to deliver a lethal head blow. This infraction caused Mr. Halbleib to duck and plunge forward into the water pre-maturely. The video is under review and a decision will be rendered shortly. The second scheduled match between Pat Bradley and self-proclaimed favorite, Jarrett Williams, was posponed due to an alligator sighting and will now take place at the Rocky Point Sprints on April 21st. A re-match of the Halbleib-Kerkmann joust is anticipated. Additional jousting professionals are encouraged to enter the competition at info@panamdragonboat.com See you all at Rocky Point!
